

NOT ACCEPTING RESUMES AT THIS TIME. 3/10/04

Law Student Opportunities

Public Rights Division Summer Honors Program

Beginning in the Fall of 2003 the California Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, will begin accepting applications from law students for its 2004 Public Rights Division Summer Honors Program. Law students participating in the Public Rights Division Summer Honors Program will spend up to 12 weeks as an intern with one of the ten sections within the Public Rights Division. Summer Honors Program positions will be available in the following cities and areas of law for 2004:

- Los Angeles: Antitrust Law; Consumer Law; Civil Rights Enforcement; Charitable Trusts; Land/Environment/Natural Resources.
- Sacramento: Civil Rights Enforcement; Consumer Law; Tobacco Litigation and Enforcement; Charitable Trusts; Energy Crisis; Land/Environment/Natural Resources.
- Oakland: Land/Environment/Natural Resources.
- San Francisco: Antitrust Law; Energy Crisis; Consumer Law.
- San Diego: Consumer Law; Land/Environment/Natural Resources

Work-study and volunteer positions will be available for the 2004 Summer Honors Program. Additionally, some students may receive academic credit for their work. Public interest and other types of grants may be available to students for these positions.

Office of the Attorney General California Department of Justice

www.ag.ca.gov/careers/students.htm

Equal Opportunity Employer

Resumes for Summer 2004 will be accepted until February 27, 2004.

Submit a resume, writing sample and list of references. Please indicate your preferred practice area and city location.

Apply by sending the required documents via email to:

Sabrina Hernandez
Public Rights Division
sabrina.hernandez@doj.ca.gov